Durability

All technical properties are tested to guarantee that all our stone ranges are frost resistant and you can be assured of long-term durability against the weather.

Natural Beauty

Given that these are natural products, it is rare for any two pieces to be the same, displaying different shades, colour blends and unique formations, adding a character and personality that just cannot be found in alternative landscape materials.

Timeless Grace

The timeless charm of natural stone can create an oasis in your garden. Whether your dream is a cottage garden or a contemporary space we have the perfect colour and style to make it come true.

Simple to Maintain

As with all external landscaping products, at the mercy of the elements, there will be some maintenance required to keep your natural stone paving looking pristine. However, Talasey have the expertise and the right protection and cleaning solutions to support the specific type of natural stone that you select. This will ensure only simple routine cleaning is required to retain that unique natural splendour.

Longevity of Colour

Natural stone retains its colour and beauty with age.
